WORKSHOP DESCRIPTIONS

Financial Essentials and Financial Officers

Financial Essentials

This workshop is for all members in an elected position within the local union. Whether you are a trustee or a member of the executive, learning about the basics of the local union's finances is a priority. In this workshop, you will learn about your duties within the finances of the union, budgeting, and how to be transparent and accountable to members.

Financial Officers

Once secretary-treasurers and trustees complete the Financial Essentials workshop, they will spend time learning about bookkeeping and auditing.

Treasurers will learn how to use the CUPE electronic ledger, manage the local union's funds and accounts, and prepare reports to the membership and the trustees.

Trustees will learn how to properly perform an audit of the local union's books, accounts, properties, and assets. At the end of this workshop, trustees will be able to make recommendations to the local union to improve the local union's financial health.

Please bring a copy of your Local bylaws and recent Treasurer's Report to the Membership, as well as a pocket calculator and a laptop.

Health and Safety: An Introduction

This course serves as an introduction into the world of health and safety and explores different basic concepts such as:

- ❖ Identification of hazards
- ❖ Hierarchy of controls
- ❖ The basic role of health and safety committees
- ❖ Basics on the right to refuse

How Bargaining Works

This module can be added to other parts of the Bargaining Education Program. It covers the legal framework for collective bargaining and where we get our power as a union.

Labour History and the Class Struggle Today

Unions have led the charge for shorter work weeks, health and safety legislation, collective bargaining rights, benefit and pension programs, and much more. Now unions are under attack. In this workshop, we will explore:

- ❖ the history of unions in Canada and key moments in CUPE's 50-year history
- ❖ why unions are under attack
- ❖ who benefits when workers' rights are weakened
- ❖ what we can learn from our history to help us move forward and build our power at the bargaining table and in the political arena

Learning at Work – It's Our Right!

Literacy and essential skills are union issues. Workplace learning programs help our members upgrade these skills. In our ever-changing workplaces, it's important for all to know what these programs can offer CUPE members.

You will leave this workshop with the tools needed to set up a workplace learning program for your members.

Please bring a copy of your collective agreement

Recording Secretaries

Recording Secretaries play a vital role in keeping local unions strong. Learn how to take clear and accurate meeting minutes, organize files, process and write correspondence, and communicate effectively with members.

Please bring a copy of your Local bylaws, as well as 3 samples of meeting notices and minutes.

Stewarding: An Introduction

What does a CUPE Steward do? If you are a new steward and want to learn how to help CUPE members solve workplace problems, this introductory workshop is for you! In this workshop, you will learn about:

- ❖ investigating workplace problems
- ❖ filing a grievance
- ❖ meeting with management
- ❖ dealing with workplace complaints

Please bring a copy of your collective agreement.

Steward Learning Series

This series recognizes that the steward has an important role to play in a number of areas in the workplace and the union. It provides an opportunity to stay current on stewarding issues. Stewards who have taken the Introduction to Stewarding workshop can choose from a list of topics to build on their skills. Following are the Steward Learning Series modules that will be offered this fall/winter.

- Building Your Case
Good grievance handling means keeping well organized files. Learn how to research a case thoroughly, how to separate facts from opinions, and tips for taking good notes.
- Challenging Homophobia in the Workplace
What is homophobia and transphobia, and how do they play out in our workplaces, locals, and communities? Learn how a steward can challenge this kind of discrimination and represent members that experience homophobia in the workplace.
- Challenging Racism in the Workplace
This workshop covers what racism looks like in the workplace and your role as a steward in challenging it.
- Conflict Resolution Skills for Stewards
Knowing how to handle conflict well will improve your relationships with members and the employer. Learn about the different responses to conflict and practise communication skills that will help in situation of conflict.
- Connecting with Aboriginal Workers
Explore how your local can demonstrate solidarity with Aboriginal members. Stewards discuss strategies for making your local more inclusive to Aboriginal members.
- Creating Gender Equality
How do you know if gender inequality is happening in your workplace? Learn about gender inequality and ideas for how stewards can challenge sexism in the workplace.
- Creating Harassment-Free Workplaces
Learn how to recognize harassment, educate the members about harassment, and represent member who are involved in harassment complaints.
- Creating Psychologically, Healthy and Safe Workplaces
What is a psychologically healthy and safe workplace? Learn to identify the psychological hazards in our workplaces and the role of the steward in eliminating psychological hazards.

➤ Handling Discipline and Discharge

Learn about key legal concepts and terms, the role of the stewards during the employer's investigation, when discipline is given, and during grievance meeting, and how to develop effective arguments.

➤ Understanding Mental Health

Explore the steward's role in supporting and representing members around mental health and mental illness. Learn about health and safety rights and how stewards can support this important area of union work.

➤ What's Our Duty?

Learn about where stewards get their authority in the workplace, the duty of fair representation, and other labour laws that cover the workplace.

PREREQUISITE: Completion of the 9-hour Introduction to Stewarding Workshop is a prerequisite for the SLS.

Please bring your Steward Learning Passport and Steward Handbook.

NOTE: Stewards may take a module more than once.

Strategic Planning for Bargaining

In this workshop, the local executive:

- ❖ analyzes the internal and external factors that impact bargaining
- ❖ sets goals for bargaining
- ❖ prepares a workplan to steer them through the bargaining process

Taking on Privatization/P3s

This workshop examines the biggest threat to CUPE jobs and public services. Find out how to:

- ❖ spot the early warning signs of privatization
- ❖ respond to privatization and contracting-out threats
- ❖ build a campaign to fight privatization in your local

Union Supervisors in the Workplace

This workshop will help you build union solidarity in locals where some members of the union supervise other members. It provides tips on how unionized supervisors can carry out their duties and discusses how locals can ensure that tensions between supervisors and those supervised don't get in the way of the local union's activities.

GENERAL INFORMATION

- Unless otherwise indicated, daytime workshops start at 9:00 a.m. and finish no later than 4:30 p.m. on the first day, and by 1:00 p.m. or earlier on the last day. Evening Steward Learning Series workshops in Winnipeg are held from 6:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m.
