EQUALITY STATEMENT

Union solidarity is based on the principle that union members are equal and deserve mutual respect at all levels. Any behaviour that creates conflict prevents us from working together to strengthen our union.

As unionists, mutual respect, cooperation and understanding are our goals. We should neither condone nor tolerate behaviour that undermines the dignity or self-esteem of any individual or creates an intimidating, hostile or offensive environment.

Discriminatory speech or conduct which is racist, transphobic or homophobic hurts and thereby divides us. So too, does discrimination on the basis of ability, age, class, religion, language and ethnic origin.

Sometimes discrimination takes the form of harassment. Harassment means using real or perceived power to abuse, devalue or humiliate. Harassment should not be treated as a joke. The uneasiness and resentment that it creates are not feelings that help us grow as a union.

Discrimination and harassment focus on characteristics that make us different; and they reduce our capacity to work together on shared concerns such as decent wages, safe working conditions, and justice in the workplace, society and in our union.

CUPE's policies and practices must reflect our commitment to equality. Members, staff and elected officers must be mindful that all persons deserve dignity, equality and respect.

MARK HANCOCK, CUPE National President

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Welcome to the Canadian Union of Public Employees (CUPE) Local 500. I hope this booklet is helpful to you in understanding our Union and the rights you enjoy as a member.

As a new employee in the bargaining unit, you are represented by the Canadian Union of Public Employees, Local 500. Like many employees, this may be the first time you have been represented by a Union and might have some questions about what this means to you.

Union representation means that Local 500, with your active participation, negotiates and administers a legally binding contract known as a Collective Agreement on your behalf.

A Collective Agreement sets forth your wages, benefits, hours, and nearly all of your working conditions. Because all employees negotiate together through the Union, workers receive higher wages and better benefits than non-Union workers in similar jobs.

Our Union is only as strong as its members, so I would encourage you to participate and have a voice regarding your workplace.

If you have any questions about our Union, please see the shop steward representing your work area or contact the Local 500 office at 204-942-1001.

In closing, I wish you well in your new job and look forward to your active support.

In solidarity,

GORD DELBRIDGE
President

ABOUT OUR UNION

With more than half a million members across Canada, CUPE represents workers in health care, education, municipalities, libraries, universities, social services, public utilities, transportation, emergency services and airlines.

A strong and democratic Union, CUPE is committed to improving the quality of life for workers in Canada. Women and men working together to form local Unions built CUPE. They did so to have a stronger voice – a collective voice – in their workplace and in society as a whole.

Together they have won the right to negotiate their wages and working conditions; to stop arbitrary action by employers; and to speak out without fear of reprisal.

CUPE members are service-providers, white-collar workers, technicians, labourers, skilled trades people and professionals. More than half of CUPE members are women. About one-third are part-time workers.

CUPE is a modern, dynamic and sophisticated Union with more than 70 offices across the country. Workers, united through CUPE, have the clout and expertise to deal with the growing complexities of our global economy.

ABOUT LOCAL 500

Local 500 has approximately 5,000 members. We represent all City of Winnipeg employees except fire, paramedics, police, transit workers and management. We also represent employees at Riverview Health Centre and other workplaces such as the Winnipeg Convention Centre and the Winnipeg Humane Society. Because of our size and diversity, Local 500 is divided into units and affiliates. Units are made up of a large number of members with common job concerns and similar working conditions. Affiliates are small groups of employees with the same employer.

Units/Affiliates

Every member of Local 500 belongs to a unit or an affiliate. The Local 500 Units are: Civic Services Unit, Community Services Unit, Public Works Unit, Riverview Health Centre Unit and Water and Waste Unit.

The Local 500 Affiliates are: Assiniboine Park Conservancy, Commissionaires (RCMP "D" Division), Canlan Ice Sports (Highlander), Emterra Environmental, Historical Museum of St. James-Assiniboia, Gateway Recreation Centre, Kirkfield-Westwood Community Centre, Southdale Community Centre, Rural Municipality of East St. Paul, St. Boniface Museum, Varsity View Community Centre, RBC Winnipeg Convention Centre, Winnipeg Humane Society and Winnipeg Regional Health Authority.

Four units are covered by the collective agreement between Local 500 and the City of Winnipeg. All other groups have their own separate agreements. Each unit and affiliate deal with the business that affects them directly and also have a CUPE National Staff Representative assigned to them to assist with members' concerns.

Union Stewards:

Union Stewards are the Union's representatives on the job. They help co-workers with problems they might have at the workplace. They keep members informed of the Union's activities and take the concerns of the members to the Union.

CENTRAL COUNCIL

A central governing body runs the affairs of the Local as a whole and each unit and affiliate is responsible to the governing body called Central Council. Central Council consists of the executives and stewards of the units and affiliates plus the elected officers of the Local - President, 1st Vice-President, 2nd Vice-President, Recording Secretary, Treasurer and Warden. In addition, three Trustees are elected.

The Local 500 President, Gord Delbridge works full-time for our Local and directs the day-to-day operations of the Union office. In addition, two staff members cover communications, steward training, workers compensation, pensions, benefits, job classification issues and job placement. Three office staff handle clerical functions. Our Local also has three full-time National Staff Representatives who handle grievances, hearings and other labour/management problems in addition to helping the Local negotiate collective agreements. However, the majority of the Union's work is done by CUPE members on a volunteer basis. They deal with problems in the workplace, serve on committees, hold office in the Union and participate on negotiating committees.

FAQ'S

What does it mean to be a CUPE member?

Everyday, everywhere, you'll find CUPE members and CUPE at work. Across the country CUPE members are doing important work, providing vital public services around the clock. And where you find CUPE members, you'll also see the big impact their Union has on their wages, benefits and working conditions – and the quality of life in the communities where they live.

What are union dues?

Union dues are set by the members of Local 500 in accordance with the Local's by-laws and the CUPE constitution. Everyone has Union dues deducted in accordance with the Manitoba Labour Relations Act but Union membership is not compulsory. This is called the Rand Formula which is based on the philosophy that all employees who benefit from the activities of the Union should contribute to its maintenance.

How much does it cost?

Your union dues are broken down as follows:

- $33.69 bi-weekly flat rate or
- For those earning under $1,129.00 bi-weekly, dues are 2% of earnings

Our dues bring large rewards in pay raises, benefits, job security, representation and working conditions. Members pay dues to cover the costs of running a Union office as well as for professional services provided by our specialized staff such as benefits, compensation, reclassifications, job evaluations, education, communication programs, public relations, research, writing and contracting out campaigns. Our Local also pays per capita to the Canadian Labour Congress, Winnipeg Labour Council and CUPE Manitoba who all provide support to us.

RIGHTS & RESPONSIBILITY

Your Rights and Responsibilities as a Union Member

You have the right:

- To have your opinions heard and respected and to be informed of Union activities.
- To have representation at the workplace and at the bargaining table.
- To have your concerns resolved in a fair and expeditious manner.

Responsibilities:

- Read your contract.
- Know who your stewards and Union officers are.
- Attend Union meetings.
- Contribute to the support of our Union.
- Treat all workers and members fairly.

Grievances:

If something happens that goes against anything in your collective agreement, you have the right to do something about it. This is called filing a grievance. You should first talk to your steward if you have a workplace concern. If your steward determines that a contract violation has occurred, together you will file a grievance. An important thing to remember is that not all workplace complaints are grievances. The key is to make sure you have all the facts and information available for the steward. Working closely and cooperatively with your steward improves your chances of success.

NEW MEMBER INFORMATION

Information for new members is now available online at www.cupe500.mb.ca in the Member Centre section of our website.
